Mark your calendar for the first statewide economic development conference. The focus will be on leadership, partnership, recovery, and results. We will spotlight the issues facing Washington state, provide opportunities to network and build partnerships, search out and showcase innovation, and share best practices. You will leave with tools, information, and knowledge to enhance the economic vitality of your community – and the state.

Registration information will be available shortly. Visit www.oted.wa.gov to learn more about the conference.
